

museum kunst palast: Definitely a cultured

At the museum kunst palast, representative events meet classical style in a modern orchestration. The distinctive interior of the building has been designed by the renowned architect Prof. O. M. Unger and is characterized by a stylish ambience. With the Robert-Schumann-Saal and the adjoining lobby, the historic museum complex provides the perfect setting for high-class corporate events, receptions, gala nights and speeches. The Robert-Schumann-Saal has a 600 square metres surface in all and can accommodate up to 796 persons.

place.

Capacities of Robert-Schumann-Saal:

- Seating in rows: 796 persons
- Classroom style seating: 320 persons
- Seating arrangement for banquets: 300 persons
- Total surface: 600 square metres
- Adjoining lobby: 234 square metres
- Other areas on request

Capacities Palastcafé:

- Total capacity: 120 persons
- Seating in rows: 80 persons
- Seating arrangement for banquets: 80 persons
- Total area: 220 square metres

Basic data:

- Integrated into the new building of museum kunst palast (changing exhibitions)
- Representative location in the centre of Düsseldorf, adjacent to the river Rhine and at a few minutes walking distance from the Old Town
- Spatial and organisational linkage with the museum
- Artists' dressing rooms in the backstage area
- Parking spaces in the direct vicinity
- Excellent public transport connection